Glendonbrook Wines Pty Ltd is a family-owned company located in East Gresford in the Northern Hunter Valley of NSW. The winery is situated in one of Australia's earliest grape growing districts, where pioneers established vineyards in the early 1830's. Now, over 176 years later, the Glendonbrook label is spearheading the rebirth of the wine industry in the region, with a superlative range of wines handcrafted to display the unique regional and varietal characteristics that have made the region world famous.

Stylishly packaged in a contemporary fashion, Glendonbrook's three traditional white varietals - Chardonnay, Semillon and Verdelho - and three reds - Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz and Merlot - have won numerous awards. The portfolio is rounded out by easy-drinking semillon/chardonnay and shiraz/cabernet/merlot blends, both of which have been made to enjoy as young, fresh wines.

Tower Estate, located in the Hunter Valley region of NSW, was established in 1999 by industry legend, the late Len Evans AO OBE. Its philosophy is to produce wines of classic style from fruit grown in the specific Australian region that best suits a particular grape variety and style. Small parcels of super premium, iconic wines are made from grapes grown in the Hunter Valley, Barossa Valley, Clare Valley, Yarra Valley, Adelaide Hills and Coonawarra regions. All the wines are hand made using traditional techniques.

Wild Fingerlime is the largest producer and supplier of finger limes in the world. The finger lime (Micro-citrus Australasica) is an Australian native bushfood whose pulp is caviar-like in appearance, varying in colour from clear, yellow, green, pink and red, each with its own unique lime flavour. The tiny translucent caviar like crystals burst in the mouth giving a unique tangy flavour. Based in the sub-tropics of northern NSW, where the finger lime is endemic, Wild Fingerlime specialises in producing superior A grade finger limes for domestic and international markets. All the fruit is hand picked and packed and chilled to order, in 2 kilo boxes, in a HACCP accredited packing facility, ready for shipping around the world. Finger limes are used extensively with seafood, Asian cuisine, salads, desserts, cocktails, chutney, jams and dressings, making them one of the world's most versatile and unique bushfoods.
