

BUSINESS IN REGIONAL NSW > Business Assistance

Developing Regional Resources

The Developing Regional Resources Program provides funding to help regional organisations, industry associations or alliances of regional firms investigate and pursue new economic/business development opportunities.

The aim is to strengthen regional economies through initiatives that add value to local resources or diversify from the traditional economic base. Funding partners are sought from other government agencies and, increasingly, from the private sector.

For more information

Enterprise and Regional Development Division | ☎ +61 2 9338 6719 | regional@business.nsw.gov.au