

HELP FOR BUSINESS > Commercialisation of R&D

Business Support

Supporting technology companies and growing export markets

Targeted business initiatives such as the New Export Opportunities program and the Stepping Up mentoring program, and the promotion of ICT excellence through expos such as CEBIT Australia, NSW technology companies have the opportunity to showcase their products to international investors and potential export partners.

To find out more about the Department's business and export development programs for small to medium sized companies, visit the NSW Small Business website.