Investment

The New South Wales (NSW) Department of State and Regional Development (DSRD) provides a range of services to companies interested in establishing or expanding their operations in Sydney and NSW.

The Competitive Edge

As a leading Asia Pacific business location, Sydney and the State of New South Wales offer companies a highly competitive base from which to do business in the world's fastest growing region.

More than 600 international companies have chosen Sydney as their regional office/headquarters, and it is easy to see why. A time zone straddling the US and Europe, one of the best performing economies in the world, a highly skilled and multilingual workforce, sophisticated physical and communications technology infrastructure in a low cost environment make a compelling business case.
