Our Programs and Initiatives

i

The New South Wales Department of State and Regional Development (DSRD) encourages investment and sustainable economic development across New South Wales (NSW) through a range of programs.

Payroll Tax Incentive Scheme

The Payroll Tax Incentive Scheme (PTIS) is a key element of the NSW Government's approach to assisting new and existing businesses to establish and grow in locations where unemployment is above the state average.

Small business programs

The Department offers a range of programs and services to assist firms at different stages of the business life cycle and to support those with particular needs and opportunities.

Regional programs

The Department works actively to build a stronger State by delivering services to regional enterprises, industries and communities. It also recruits new investment to regional areas of NSW.

Programs to help exporters

The Department provides support and information for businesses wishing to start or expand their export activities.

Industry programs

The Department runs numerous programs and initiatives to assist industry including: the Australian Technology Showcase; the NSW Innovation Council; the Meat Processing Industry Restructuring Program; and the Industry Capability Network (NSW).

Investment services

The Department provides a range of services to companies interested in establishing or expanding their operations in Sydney and NSW. Our investment team also follows up with investors to ensure that their project is proceeding smoothly and to offer further assistance if required.
