

Payroll Tax Incentive Scheme

The Payroll Tax Incentive Scheme (PTIS) is a key element of the NSW Government's approach to assisting new and existing businesses to establish and grow in locations where unemployment is above the state average.

The scheme commenced on 1 July 2006. It provides a payroll tax rebate at the end of each financial year over a five year period, for businesses wanting to invest in areas of NSW with higher than the State average unemployment. The rebates offered are up to $144,000 a year for the first three years, decreasing to a maximum of $95,904 in year four and $47,952 in year five.

The scheme is available to employers who have not paid payroll tax in NSW prior to the financial year in which an application is made.

The payroll tax incentive will be directed to businesses seeking to relocate or expand in the following locations or regional areas:

2007-2008

- Richmond-Tweed
- Mid-North Coast
- Hunter

- Central Western Sydney
